Regis Villa guests can also choose from the six distinct gastronomic experiences of The St. Regis Mauritius Resort or the resorts extensive In-room Dining Menu. The St. Regis Villa features a well-sized and fully equipped office room. Located just before the main lounge room it provides guests with a serene space with natural daylight to address the unavoidable calls from the office, catch up on e-mails or perhaps just read a book. Four spacious suites with exquisitely appointed interiors; refined fittings and delicate textures create a homely ambience enhanced by generous volumes opening out onto the ocean. A compelling invitation to island indolence. Each suite has full direct ocean view and opens up to a private timbre deck with private sun loungers and direct access to the beach. Three suites offer a private pool outside on the deck.

The St. Regis Villa Manager oversees a dedicated team of skilled St.Regis Butlers, valets and a chef, providing guests with the most superior level of bespoke service. Their attention to detail is second to none, ranging from the selection of in-villa drinks and snacks, sourcing children's favourite treats, books and games complimentary in-room beverage service during the stay, unpacking & packing service, garment pressing, and many more services.

Guests of the St. Regis Villa are of course welcome to use all the facilities of The St. Regis Mauritius Resort.
