Exclusive Villas Casole are nestled in the magnificent Tuscan landscape with vineyards, olive trees and sweeping meadows. They are set on the vast property of Castello di Casole, an historic estate, which has only been restored a couple of years ago and been transformed into a luxury hotel. The secluded and spacious villas are built in an authentic Tuscan farmhouse style surrounded by acres of open space with expansive views - ideal for getting away from it all. All of the villas have carefully been restored and reconstructed by architects and artisans and are respectful of their heritage. The exclusive villas combine traditional Tuscan architecture with modern updates and conveniences such as spacious kitchens, sumptuous baths, outdoor dining areas and glass-tiled infinity-edged pools. In total, there are 21 villas for 6 to 10 people. Each villa is unique and individual with a living space ranging from 460 to 650 sqm. They all feature a main house and some have outbuildings, which now serve as unique and inviting guest quarter.

The facilities of Hotel Castello di Casole such as bar, trattoria, gourmet-restaurant, spa- and gym can be used at a reduced rate.

The estate is centrally located to the most desirable Tuscan sights. Siena can be reached within half an hour driving, Florence in less than an hour by car. And the walled fortress of Monteriggioni is a comfortable bike ride.
